legal hold process.

Expect Success

Your organization has a duty to preserve relevant information when it learns of pending litigation or investigation. But manual or traditional approaches to doing this? They're difficult, costly, and error-prone, leaving your enterprise open to risk.

Mitratech LegalHold is the intuitive, easy-to-use SaaS solution for mitigating the risks and costs of a legal hold process.

Does your current process leave you exposed?

- Is it difficult for your legal department to identify the location of all data that may need to be collected?
- Is it hard to efficiently deliver instructions to custodians for preserving that information?
- Can you prove you've taken reasonable step to accomplish this, so you can prevent increased risk and negative consequences during litigation?

Reduce risk & cut costs with Mitratech LegalHold

- The easy-to-use SaaS solution for mitigating the risks and costs of entire legal hold process, supported by a global leader in legal technology.
- Intuitive design maximizes efficiency for both the legal department and custodians who must attest to their obligations.
- A standardized, repeatable process reduces the risk of potential evidence being deleted, and can stand up to judicial scrutiny.

4 simple steps to end-to-end legal hold process management

LegalHold Simplified

Why LegalHold?

Intuitive

LegalHold's intuitive modern UX design is clear and easy to use for both legal staff and custodians, driving the 100% compliance needed for successful hold management. Our UX is optimized for mobile devices, too, which further increases attestation and compliance rates.

Comprehensive

Mitratech LegalHold empowers end-to-end management of the entire legal hold process - from creating holds and selecting designated custodians to execution via automatic notifications & escalations and reporting capabilities.

Defensible

Results of a legal hold are instantly and easily reportable, so your process can withstand judicial scrutiny. Complete auditability of all actions, escalations, and attestations means you avoid court sanctions for non-compliance.

Efficient

Reduce legal staff time spent on legal holds by as much as 75% by automating the process.

75% reduction in legal staff time

Integrated

By integrating seamlessly with TeamConnect and eCounsel ELM platforms, LegalHold increases visibility into all aspects of a matter from a single source of truth.

Results?

- Improved legal outcomes via reduced litigation exposure
- Maximized efficiency via reduced costs
