The only talent management platform purpose-built for

LOCATION-BASED, HIGH VOLUME HIRING

Let's Get Started

GREATNESS IS OUT THERE

TalentReef connects great companies with great candidates through a single, easy to use platform built to simplify location-based hourly workforce recruiting, hiring and retention, at any scale. We combine everything we have learned from serving the best-known national brands and over 100,000 locations with flexible, integrated software to transform the end-to-end talent management experience for HR, managers and business owners.

Above all, we make it easy for candidates to apply, managers to hire and onboard and great companies to retain a quality hourly staff. See how our proven model, built specifically for the hourly workforce, fills your applicant funnel with quality candidates, ensures compliance, saves time hiring and onboarding, and empowers great companies to retain talent longer.

RECRUIT

Speed wins. Candidates want a simple, quick way to find jobs and apply. We go beyond simple job boards with features that drive the fastest hourly employee recruiting experience.
